

The Highway to Success

There is, to-day as yesterday, no avenue of opportunity closed to the man who strives earnestly for success.

The man of wealth clips coupons from his bonds—and so, to-day, may his humblest employe.

The man of wealth probably began at the bottom and, like the ambitious worker of to-day, looked into the future, made up his mind what he wanted to be, and then by hard work, frugality and wise investment won his way to success.

The highway of success is open to-day to every man who is willing to pay the price in hard work and strict economy.

First the savings account, then the bond, the home, the business—all on the highway to success. Any man who will may follow it. He only needs to pay the price.

SOUTH RYEGATE

Axel Anderson, Granite Manufacturer, Died Tuesday of Apoplexy.

Axel Anderson, a granite manufacturer of South Ryegate, died suddenly Tuesday morning of apoplexy. He had been away from his business for a week or so, as he was not feeling very well, but no one knew that his ailment was a serious one. Mr. Anderson came to South Ryegate from Milford, Mass., about twenty years ago, working for a time for the Ryegate Granite works.

Later he went into the granite manufacturing business for himself and has been successful. About five years ago he went to Mattapan, Mass., bought a garage and conducted an auto repair business for several years, but decided the granite business was more to his liking, so returned and began over again. He leaves a wife, two daughters, Miss Ruth Anderson and Mrs. Rose Philbrook, and one son, Henry Anderson.

The West Fairlee Center band has been invited to play at East Corinth Memorial day.

The contributions of the West Fairlee Center church to the China famine relief fund were increased by $5 on May 8.

A meeting of the church members is called for Sunday, May 15, at the close of public worship to take action regarding an invitation to persons who have recently started in the Christian life to unite with the church.

Among the mothers and grandmothers present on mothers' Sunday was Mrs. John W. Munn, who was able to be present at public worship for the first time in several months. Mrs. Munn has been for many years a devoted worker for the church and the circle of friends gathering around her testified to the high esteem in which she is held. Mrs. Munn is a great-grandmother and she has more great-grandchildren than grandchildren.

On Sunday, May 15, Mr. Sargent will preach on "The Christian Sabbath, 'How We Should Observe It and Why.' This sermon will give little attention to the familiar rules as to what should not be done on Sunday, dealing with the things to do, so as to make Sunday full of good things.

The executive committee of the fair to be held Aug. 10 met at the home of B. M. Ball Monday evening.

WATERBURY

The committee having in charge the May day entertainment at Community hall have a sum of $182.50 to report as profit, $100 of this to be credited to the school as their donation to the cause. The sum of $224.96 was taken, out of which was spent $35 for music; $2.25 for decorations; $12.75 for ice cream and cones; $5 for trucking; $70 for cardboard and napkins. The committee also wishes to thank all those who aided in the work in any way, in assisting in the decorating and other work, and particularly each and every child, their parents and instructors. The success of this undertaking is an index prelude to the community fair Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Watch for the "Apple Tree Worm."

The tent caterpillar, or "apple tree worm," is showing a tendency to come back in numbers, according to Harold L. Bailey, in charge of insect suppression under Commissioner of Agriculture E. S. Brigham. For several years the insect has been rare in the state, but will rapidly increase if left unchecked.

Concerted effort in destroying the tent caterpillar, followed by the collection of egg masses later, may prevent a recurrence of the great numbers of seven and eight years ago. Based on a conservative estimate of reproduction, allowing for casualties of various sorts, the crushing of the inhabitants of one tent now destroys potentially 25 tents next season, 325 the next and 15,625 in 1924, and so on, pyramiding until by sheer crowding and congestion the insects should bring down upon themselves the natural forces of disease, parasitism and starvation which always follow such conditions, but only after disastrous effects upon the trees.

Tents are plainly to be seen, are almost exclusively on apple and wild cherry trees and hence are mainly confined to orchards, roadsides, fence rows or the scattering growth in pastures. A few hours spent in eliminating them now will be worth more than a few weeks two or three years hence. The work must be done immediately, for the caterpillars scatter and spin cocoons during the latter part of the month.

Boys' and Girls' Club Work to Be Started in Washington County.

The executive committee of the Washington County Farm Bureau has secured K. J. Kirk of Bennington as temporary agent to organize boys' and girls' club work in the county. Mr. Kirk has been connected with the Bennington County Farm Bureau as an organizer during the past two months. The work of the county club agent is to interest boys and girls along the lines of agriculture, poultry, livestock, canning, etc. The immediate success of the work will depend largely upon the adults who can be secured to act as local club leaders. It is hoped that clubs can be organized in each community under an able leader who will become interested in club work along the above lines.

The co-operation of the adults as well as that of the boys and girls in the communities which will be visited by Mr. Kirk in the near future is earnestly desired.

WEST FAIRLEE CENTER

The May party, held Saturday afternoon, May 7, was attended by 50 people, of whom 30 were children. Games were played on the lawn after which ice cream and cake were served in the vestry. The birthdays of seven children whose birthdays came this month were honored with a special cake, with candles on it according to the number of years. Everybody had a good time. New neighbors were welcomed for the first time and a number who had been unable to attend the children's parties during the winter were welcomed back.

A. Harp Southworth is starting in on the Kimball place with a large amount of planning.

Deacon Orris M. Hubbard is much improved in health and is doing some work in the field.

Mothers' Sunday was observed May 8 with a Sunday school program, including recitations by the children and readings by Mrs. Mertie L. Miller and Miss Gertrude Moore. The public worship was made an unusual event with the West Fairlee Center band present, furnishing music for the entire service. Rev. Arthur H. Sargent preached on the recognition due to mothers from the state as being no less than that due to soldiers. He also pictured mother love as never giving up a wayward child, and compared that love with the Christ love for all sinners. Finally, the lesson of mother love was applied to our treatment of all people who do wrong and seem to deserve to be punished. There was an attendance of 85, including people who came from Corinth and Vershire, as well as the home town.

Beginning May 8, regular Sunday evening services are held in the Beaver Meadow schoolhouse. There are no interest in these services among the Beaver Meadow people and the first service had an attendance of over 30, including a carload of people from Wild hill and Middle brook, who were carried by Lewis Blake.

The West Fairlee Center band has been invited to play at East Corinth Memorial day.

The contributions of the West Fairlee Center church to the China famine relief fund were increased by $5 on May 8.

"LIFE WAS HARDLY WORTH LIVING"

That's What Mrs. Dereau Says She Felt Before She Got Tanlac—Feels Fine Now

"I have told a great many people personally about my experience with Tanlac," said Mrs. Paul Dereau, of Middlebury, Vt., "and I am glad to make this public statement for what it may be worth to others."

"Tanlac helped me just like it had been made especially for my case, and the difference it has made in my feelings is simply wonderful. For several years I had no appetite and had all kinds of trouble with my stomach, was nervous, couldn't sleep, was subject to awful spells of dizziness and had to be all the time taking something for constipation."

"All my strength and energy left me and I felt so weak and languid that almost any little task seemed beyond my strength. I became terribly low-spirited and despondent, and had such gloomy feelings that life seemed hardly worth living."

"But it's certainly different with me now, for Tanlac has given me a wonderful appetite, my stomach never bothers me, I never feel an ache or a pain and hardly a trace of my troubles is left. I am strong and vigorous and just feel happy and in good spirits all the time. Tanlac is just grand."

Tanlac is sold in Barre by Cummings & Lewis, and by the leading druggists in every town.—Adv.
